

Accountability of Corporations for Serious Human Rights Violations

Date: Tuesday, 7 May 2024, 6.45 p.m.

Venue: oiip - Österreichisches Institut für Internationale Politik /
Austrian Institute for International Affairs
Währinger Straße 3/12, 1090 Wien

RSVP: info@cehri.org

6.45 p.m. Refreshments

Please note that to enter the building after 7 p.m. you must ring the doorbell!

7.00 p.m. Welcome

Tatiana Urdaneta Wittek, Centre for the Enforcement of Human Rights International

Wolfgang Petritsch, Austrian Institute for International Affairs

Panel discussion

Moderator: Ralph Janik, Sigmund Freud Private University

Corporate obligations and due diligence standards under international law

Karin Lukas, Central European University

Hague Rules on Business and Human Rights Arbitration

Ursula Kriebaum, University of Vienna

Individual and corporate criminal responsibility under international law

Astrid Reisinger Coracini, University of Vienna

The Lundin Trial in Sweden

Egbert Wesselink, PAX, The Netherlands

Access to remedy for victims of corporate human rights abuses

Rev. James Ninrew Kuong Dong, Chair of Liech Victims Voices, South Sudan

In cooperation with

